Numb 13934

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, June 3. 1714.

Paris, June 5.

THE Baron de Capres, Ambassador of Spain, who lately came hither from Utrecht, is to proceed to the Congress which is to be held at Baden, under Pretence of looking there to the Interests of the Princess Ursini, but we are assured he is secretly to manage Affairs for the Court of Spain, and to endeavour to enter into Negotiation with the Emperour's Ministers, to engage the Imperial Court to treat with that of Madrid. That Minister, since his coming hither, has had Conferences with the Cardinal del Giudice, the Count de Bergeijk, and other Ministers, on the Peace which remains to be concluded between Spain and Holland: And the Result of their Declarations having been communicated to the King, have been sent to Madrid by a Courier. Letters from Madrid of the 22d of May, continue to speak of the Indisposition of the King of Spain, which is said to be accompanied with a violent Looseness. The King has settled a Pension of 200000 Livres a Year on the Dutches of Berry, who goes on with Child, and 'tis hoped will be more fortunate with this than with her former. 'Tis pretended by some, that the King is never easy when the Duke of Orleans is about him; if so, 'tis believed the Jesuites who have no Affection for his Royal Highness, have found Means to insinuate into his Majesty's Mind Notions that are too odious to be mentioned. P. S. The following Letter from the Marquis de Torcy, to M. Buys and Gossinga Ambassadors of the States-General, shews the Peace between Spain and the United Provinces to be brought to a Conclusion.

TIS with very great Pleasure that I perform the Order which the King has given me, to acquaint your Excellencies, that the Answer which his Majesty expected from the King of Spain is at length arrived in the form he desired; and that that Prince has sent Orders to his Plenipotentiaries in Holland to sign the Peace between his Catholick Majesty and the States-General of the United Provinces. Your Excellencies will permit me to congratulate you on this good News, which must be the more welcome to you, because you have continually employed your most earnest Endeavours and Instances, to hasten the happy Conclusion of this Work. As I am perswaded it will meet with no further Difficulty, I hope likewise that its Duration will be such as can be wished it should for the general Good of Europe, and that your Excellencies will reap the Rewards and Honour which the Conduct you have observed in this important Juncture deserve. I intreat you to do me the Justice to believe, that I interest my self particularly in your Satisfaction as I am &c.

Signed, Dr. TO RCT.

Marly, June 2. 1714.

Hague, June 8. To the Intimation given to Baron Heems on the Part of the States-General in the Conference of the 2d of May, that it was expected his Imperial Majesty would contribute to the Re-establishing of Peace in the North, and thereby to the saving the Kingdom of Sweden from utter Ruine, that Minister has answered, that he had Order to declare that his Imperial Majesty is ready to employ his good Offices for advancing that Peace, that he has instructed his Ministers at Brunswick to that Purpose, and had sent them Plans for that End, but that his said Majesty does not think fit to engage to do any thing in it by Way of Force. Prince Kurakin, has on the Part of the Czar his Master thanked the States-General, for having not given Ear hitherto to the repeated Instances of a certain Potentate for sending jointly a Squadron into the Baltick; assuring them at the same time of the constant and inviolable Esteem and Friendship of his Czarian Majesty, of which he will give them real Proofs on Occasion; being perswaded that these High Mighty Princes will persist in their Resolution not to depart from the Neutrality in favour of the Swedes and their Friends. The said Minister notified to them at the same time, that at the Request of the Sub jects of this Sort who trade to Russia, his Czarian Majesty will permit them to send this one Year more Half of their Ships to Archangel, provided a like Number be sent to Petersburg to take in their Lading there.
